LEST WE FORGET!

Over 2,000 Democratic Precinct Election Boards, 110 Democratic County Election Boards, and a solidly Democratic State Election Board—every one of the creation of Mr. Campbell or his agents—certified to the following vote cast at the election held in Kentucky on Tuesday, November 17th, 1900:

William S. Taylor.....193,714
William Goebel.....191,331
Taylor's Plurality.....2,383

In some Courts it might be difficult to prove that five different men fired a single bullet that killed one man. But in a Kentucky Court (?) dominated by Goebellism, it is just as easy as rolling off a log.

When "the great common people" of Kentucky—made up largely of honest farmers—came to pay out their hard-earned dollars to make out that $100,000 corruption fund, they will then realize what it costs to place Kentucky Courts (?) under the control of such infamous scoundrels as TOM CAMPBELL.

REPUBLICANS should not be discouraged over the fact that only five of their number have so far been found who fired the single shot that killed GOEBEL. As sports say, "The game is young yet;" and with TOM CAMPBELL, JESSE GOEBEL, and JIM CAMPBELL in the saddle, backed by a corruption fund of $100,000, there's still a chance for other prominent members of the party to be "reacquainted."

The indictment against Governor TAYLOR charges in choice jargon that the five men who fired the shot that killed GOEBEL, shot him with "A gun or pistol loaded with powder and other explosives and leaden and steel ball and other hard substances." This ought to be specific enough; and yet there are a number of "the great common people," not versed in the nomenclature of legal lingo, who are strong in the belief that it was DON PATRICK who fired all five of the single shots that swiped GOEBEL, and that he used a single-barreled gun, loaded with sections of buttermilk, sauerkraut, "speck," beer and Limburger cheese.

COMING UPON the Star Chamber proceedings in "Jesse" CAMPBELL'S Court (?) at Frankfort, The Cincinnati Times-Star says the dimly character of the charges being made by the Goebellites in Kentucky in the effort to implicate the Republican leaders with the assassination of Senator GOEBEL is shown in the indictment prepared against Governor TAYLOR. It charges him with acting in conjunction with a number of men already indicted to feloniously kill GOEBEL, the wording being of the most indefinite character. According to the words of the indictment, the man who shot GOEBEL, and to whose act TAYLOR is charged with being an accessory, was "one of the last five—HENRY YOUTNEY, JOHN HOWARD, BERRY HOWARD, HARLAN WHITTAKER, RICHARD COMBS,—and other persons actually fired the shot that killed the said GOEBEL, is to this Grand Jury unknown."

In other words, the Grand Jury had no evidence as to who fired the fatal shot presented to it, and yet is indicting men as accessories to this individual. In its extremity it is forced not only to name five men as possible firers of the shot, but to add a saving clause stipulating others who may be unknown. The fact thus betrays in the indictment the most terrific arraignment which the men who are trying to "hang Taylor and damn the Republican party" has yet received. The paucity of evidence against the accused is thoroughly revealed thereby.

In a Court of trial they must elect upon which defendant thus named they will place the crime, for it cannot be proven that five or more men fired the single bullet which ended the life of the Covington Senator. The conspiracy to blacken the name of honored citizens simply because they are Republicans is a sample of vicious war politics running riot.

The Goebel Law is the most fitting monument that GOEBEL could have.

ANOTHER POINT OF VIEW.

"This really pains me, Willie," said the old gentleman as he picked the boy up and laid him across his knee. "Well," replied the boy, resignedly, "at least I've never been fool enough to deliberately hurt myself."

WHERE THEY FINALLY LAND.

Civilian Point of View.
I see that Burlington Lydia Thompson, who is going on seventy, has just taken a farewell benefit.
"What I take to do now?"
"Oh, I suppose she'll have a rest for a year or two and then out to the ballet."

"TOO MANY COOKS!"

Mrs. O'Hara—Oh dear Mrs. Kelly left her husband because he never had an appetite.
Mrs. O'Hara—That's no reason.
Mrs. O'Hara—It is when your husband is a policeman, Mrs. O'Hara.

TEN THOUSAND WAS A LULL.

"It is unutterably sad," she said, "unutterably sad," and went on talking and talking and talking about it with it was," remarked her husband, when he laid aside his newspaper hopelessly.
"Was what?" She inquired in some astonishment.
"Unutterably sad," and there was a lull.

Quick Relief for Asthma.

Miss Maude Dickens, Parsons, Kansas, suffered eight years with asthma in its worst form. Had several attacks during the last year and was not expected to live through them. I began using Foley's Kidney and Bladder Pills and in a few days I was completely cured. I feel like a new man. I feel like a new man. I feel like a new man.

CONFERENCE WITH TAYLOR.

He Will be Deputed to Run for Governor if Beckham is Nominated by the Democrats.

Louisville, Ky., June 4.—Dr. T. H. Baker, postmaster of Louisville, C. E. Baker, collector of customs here, and Gen. D. G. Collier, who was adjutant general under Taylor, have gone to Indianapolis to confer with the former executive of Kentucky as to his plans for the future and to offer him aid on behalf of his friends in this state. These gentlemen stand high in republican circles in Kentucky, and it is known that just prior to his departure for Indiana to evade arrest on the charge of being an accessory to the murder of Wm. Goebel, Mr. Taylor conferred with these and other party leaders in the office of Mr. Say in this city.

It is being said in exclusive republican circles that these gentlemen will explain to Taylor an intention on the part of Kentucky republicans to renounce him for governor in the event the democrats put up Beckham, as they believe a race between these two would be sure for Taylor.

IS 105 YEARS OLD.

An Aged Kentuckian Whose Health Is Good and His Mind Clear.

Owensboro, Ky., June 4.—James Henry Ireland, of Skillman, Hancock county, Ky., is celebrating his birthday anniversary today. He was born in Nelson county, June 4, 1769, and has lived in Hancock county for 60 years. His health is good and his mind is clear and active as that of a far younger man.

When the 100th anniversary of Mr. Ireland's birth was celebrated, a large number of friends from every direction, but there were few of them who dared to hope that he would be living and active for several years afterward.

Residence Burned by an Incendiary.

Lexington, Ky., June 4.—The residence of A. F. Shields, in Ashland avenue, was burned. Loss estimated at $5,000. The fire was of incendiary origin and the case is being investigated by the police. Mr. and Mrs. Shields, who were sleeping in an upper story, were aroused by the fuming of the kitchen roof. They awoke to find the house in flames, and barely escaped with their lives, in scant attire.

No Regret for Taylor.

Frankfort, Ky., June 4.—There were no developments in the matter of the warrant for the arrest of W. S. Taylor. Active Sheriff Stout spent the day at his home in the country, and at the executive office it was stated that no requisition on the governor of Indiana had yet been made. MURDERED FOR HIS MONEY.

The Body of a Man Who Mysteriously Disappeared Found With the Skull Crushed.

Oklahoma City, O. T., June 4.—The body of Wm. Lusk, the independence (Mo.) farmer who mysteriously disappeared from Luther, O. T., in March last, was found by a searching party in a gulch near Luther. The skull was crushed as if by some blunt weapon and there were a number of wounds on the body. The belief that Lusk was murdered for his money grows stronger.

James Salyer, a former companion of Davis, arrived here from Kansas City in the custody of Deputy Sheriff Crossley, of Luther, having been arrested on a charge of complicity in Davis' murder. He declares his innocence.

JEFFERSON DAVIS' BIRTHDAY.

Last Exercises Connected With the Tenth Annual Session of the Confederate Veterans.

Louisville, Ky., June 4.—The last exercises connected with the tenth annual reunion of the United Confederate Veterans occurred Sunday, when the 23rd anniversary of the birth of Jefferson Davis was observed at Union hall with services in memory of Mr. Davis, Winona Davis, "The Daughter of the Confederacy," and the confederate dead. Although thousands of the confederate reunion visitors had left the city, 5,000 persons attended the exercises. They were largely of a religious character, but nevertheless there was applause at times from the audience.

Mrs. Hayes, the daughter of Jefferson Davis, and her daughter, Miss Virginia Hayes, were at the platform. Gen. Gordon had been expected to preside and also to address the audience, but he was called away from Louisville Sunday morning, and his place was taken by Gen. Stephen D. Lee. The first speaker was Gen. Clement A. Evans, of Georgia. He was followed by ex-United States Senator Houston, of Texas, the only surviving member of Jefferson Davis' cabinet. Gen. Stephen D. Lee then spoke.

Rev. J. Winham Jones, of Virginia, chaplain general of the United Confederate Veterans, presided at the annual session. He spoke at great length on the religious life of the confederate soldiers. He said a pastor often went to the front with a majority of the male members of his church.

STRIKE STRIKE

Rioting Kept up in Connection With the St. Louis Street Railway Trouble.

BOY ONLOOKER WAS FATALLY SHOT

An Explosion of Dynamite Scattered the Cables Conducts and Switches But Injured No One.

Six Hundred Special Detectives Were Assigned to Duty and Three Hundred Held in Reserve—Subsequent Riot Kept Up.

St. Louis, June 4.—A riot of small proportion, during the progress of which a boy was fatally shot and a dynamite explosion marred what would have otherwise been an uneventful Sabbath. As a car on the lower Grove line, the St. Louis Transit Co., was passing the corner of 12th and Calhoun streets a crowd of strike sympathizers began throwing rocks at it. An unknown man leaned from one of the windows of the car and fired a shot from a revolver to ward the unruly crowd. The bullet sped over the heads of the mob and found lodgment in the breast of Peter Frank, a 15-year-old boy who was sitting in the double seat of his father's box. An interested spectator of the demonstration, a detachment of police dispersed the rioters and carried young Frank to the city hospital. The physicians say the wound will prove fatal.

At a late hour in the afternoon an explosion of dynamite scattered the cable conducts and switches on the "olive street line" at the intersection of Maryland and olive avenues. No one was injured, but traffic on that end of the line had to be suspended. There is no clue to the perpetrators. More than the usual quota of police was furnished for the protection of passengers and crews, and as a result the number of cars on the various lines of the Transit Co. was materially increased. Cars on the following lines were operated: Delmar avenue, Page avenue, Spaulding avenue, Campbell Heights, Chouteau avenue, Calhoun avenue, Foster Grove, Grand avenue, Easton avenue, Cass avenue, Olive street, Broadway, Fourth street, Sixth street, Northern Central and Union lines.

At 9:30 o'clock in the morning the nucleus of the first regiment of special deputies forming Sheriff Poff's posse constituted themselves of 10 companies of 50 men each, armed with riot shotguns, were assigned to active service in preserving order in the continuance of the following streets. Their duties consisted in patrolling the streets, doing guard duty at the various public houses and car sheds. The present intention of the police commissioners is not to deny any of this force to ride upon the street cars. Such of the posse as are doing patrol duty at the following streets, car sheds and other points where their presence is deemed to be in reserve at the station houses.

The work of subsequent action continued uninterrupted. Some, was in consequence a day of unrest for the responsible business men who had so far escaped the destruction and who were unable to enjoy the Sabbath in the bosom of their family peace and contentment. Sheriff Poff had intended to lead his posse for the members of the 1st regiment.

N. G. M., as individuals, not as an organization, but the officials charged with their duties, and the posse of the boys would not be sworn in.

There were 228 additional deputies sworn in Saturday and about 200 Sunday, which, with the 425 already sworn in, gives the sheriff a total force of 900 men to assign to active duty in response to threats issued by President Lincoln, of the police board.

Christine Thorne, 15 years old, was set upon by a crowd of about 5,000 men simply because she had ridden on a car of the St. Louis Transit Co. She was on the way to spend the day with her mother. She is a servant. The distance was too far to walk and she got back to her employer's by night. She took a street car. When she alighted at Ninth street and Geary avenue at 3 p. m. she was approached by a young man who called her a "scab." Others joined in the chorus. A young man tore off her jacket and another her hat. She was struck by the fists of men and was thrown to the face and body. A pocket-book which she carried in her hand was snatched away and the money taken. Place by place her way was torn away, while she appealed for entrance at the nearest house. The occupants, however, were afraid the mob would tear down the house and refused her admittance. She succeeded in reaching an alley and ran down it, followed by the mob. There was a little window looking into a cellar. She broke the glass and jumped in and covered in a corner of the darkness. Finally her persecutors went away and she was taken to her employer's home.

At No. 1216 12th street another incident of the same general character. A young man got off a car only to be assaulted and hooded at by a mob. He took a car from her by men, she ran down and away from the house of Mrs. Folke. The mob surrounded the house and began throwing stones through the windows. Mrs. Folke got a revolver and fired on the mob from the front window and the mob scattered.

Commandant Loria, His Field Cornet and 100 Prisoners Were Taken in the Johannesburg Fight.

Col. Speiser and His Battalion of Imperial Yeomanry Attacked Between Kromaat and Lindley—No News From Pretoria.

London, June 4.—Lord Lansdowne, secretary of state for war, has received the following from Lord Roberts, dated Orange Grove, June 2: "Johannesburg is quiet. The people are surrendering arms and ponies. Only three looting gangs were left in the town. The shops are being opened, and there seems to be a general feeling of relief at the peaceful occupation of the town."

"The Queenslanders captured May 30 a Griens, with 11 wagons of stores and ammunition. "Commandant Botha, of Zoutpansburg, his field cornet and 100 prisoners were taken in the fighting around Johannesburg. The prisoners belong to the foreign contingents and the Irish brigade."

"Owing to the interruption of the telegraph, I have not received a report from Col. Spring that his battalion of imperial yeomanry was attacked between Kromaat and Lindley."

ADJOURNMENT NEAR.

But Little More for Congress to Do, and Final Adjournment May Take Place Wednesday.

Washington, June 4.—There is now hardly any doubt that the senate will agree to the house resolution to adjourn the session next Wednesday. The passage of the last of the appropriation bills, which was accomplished Saturday, leaves no obstacle to the adjournment. The following amendments made to the bills by the senate, and the opinion is now almost universal that these differences will be adjusted and all the business of the session concluded by the time named. The only two items of difference which might cause material delay are the armor plate amendment on the naval appropriation bill and the amendment on the sundry civil appropriation in the interior bill. The senate's position on the armor plate amendment is in the line of the house, and the amendment on the sundry civil appropriation in the interior bill is in the line of the house. The leaders of all parties apparently are united in the wish to bring the session to a close on Wednesday. Conference reports on appropriation and other bills promise to occupy the attention of the house to the exclusion of everything else during the closing days of the session. Only one piece of general legislation seriously threatens the programme—the great anti-trust bill. The friends of this measure have been insisting that it be passed before adjournment and have threatened, in case the senate does not agree to the resolution for final adjournment on Wednesday, to hold up any amended resolution until they can have an opportunity to vote on their bill.

KEITH IS STARVING.

He Drinks Water, But Hardly Touches Food, and Is Mousy at All Times.

Ennerville, Ind., June 4.—Joseph D. Keith, who was arrested by the police of this city, and who was taken to the county jail without the police having secured a confession of his guilt, is now in a state of starvation. The evidence already collected will prove that Keith committed one of the foulest crimes ever recorded in the history of this city. He was indicted by the grand jury in a few days, and an effort will be made to bring the case to trial at the June term of the court.

Keith's morose mood grows and he does nothing but sit in his cell with his face buried in his hands. He takes an occasional drink of water, but rarely touches food. It is believed he is trying to commit suicide by starving. A close watch will be kept on him by a guard. In the meantime an effort will be made to locate the spot where Keith committed his crime, in order to determine whether Gibson, the Vanderburgh county jailer, is innocent. If the desired evidence is not forthcoming, some interesting points of law will have to be determined by the court.

ROBERTS' REPORT

Johannesburg Quiet and a General Feeling of Relief at the Peaceful Occupation.

ARMS AND PONIES BEING SURRENDERED

Commandant Loria, His Field Cornet and 100 Prisoners Were Taken in the Johannesburg Fight.

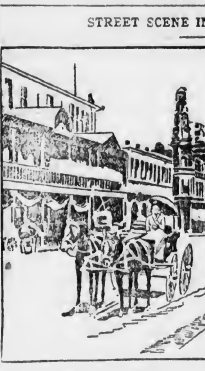

Col. Speiser and His Battalion of Imperial Yeomanry Attacked Between Kromaat and Lindley—No News From Pretoria.

London, June 4.—Lord Lansdowne, secretary of state for war, has received the following from Lord Roberts, dated Orange Grove, June 2: "Johannesburg is quiet. The people are surrendering arms and ponies. Only three looting gangs were left in the town. The shops are being opened, and there seems to be a general feeling of relief at the peaceful occupation of the town."

"The Queenslanders captured May 30 a Griens, with 11 wagons of stores and ammunition. "Commandant Botha, of Zoutpansburg, his field cornet and 100 prisoners were taken in the fighting around Johannesburg. The prisoners belong to the foreign contingents and the Irish brigade."

"Owing to the interruption of the telegraph, I have not received a report from Col. Spring that his battalion of imperial yeomanry was attacked between Kromaat and Lindley."

STREET SCENE IN JOHANNESBURG.

View of Buildings in Fritchard Street, the Main Business Thoroughfare of the City.

Lindley on May 29. Casualties to follow. "The proclamation announcing the annexation of the Orange Free State was made known at Bloemfontein by the firing of a salute. The proclamation was read by Gen. Buller, military governor. The troops under Gen. Buller formed a square, the royal standard was hoisted, the national salute, a royal salute was fired and the queen was cheered. The name 'Orange River Colony' was well received."

"Received a report yesterday that four prisoners had escaped from Pretoria."

There is no direct news from Pretoria of late date than Thursday evening. Gen. French's cavalry were then at Irene, eight miles south of Orange Grove. They believe, however, that Lord Roberts' messages about secondary operations elsewhere and the situation at Johannesburg, dated at Orange Grove, a forest, the troops under Gen. Buller, show that on Saturday at 9:10 p. m. he was 25 miles from Pretoria."

The correspondence with Lord Roberts has not got through a line about the operations after the occupation of Johannesburg. Official messages continue to come through, but press telegrams are held up, probably to avoid their giving a hint as to what may be the pending operations. From the other side there filters through Lourenco Marques a mass of statements, some contradictory, others obviously improbable, but all purporting to be facts.

Passengers arriving at Lourenco Marques Saturday night from Pretoria say that the capital was preparing to surrender when they left on Thursday. The first trains were dismantled. The user guard at Konatop sequestered all trains and turned back most of the fugitives, among them deserting foreigners who were trying to reach neutral soil.

Eight Refugees Reach Tsin-Tsin, but Six Are Still Missing—Refugees Murdered.

Tien Tsin, June 4.—Six men and two ladies, French and Belgian refugees from Pao Ting Fu, have arrived here. Nine are still missing. A body of mounted Cossacks have gone in search of the missing and to take food to Yui Lin Ching for the relief of the party there.

It is reported from Peking that Mr. Stevenson, of the Church of England mission at Yem Ching, has been murdered, and that Mr. Norman, of the same mission, is missing.

REVOLTING SCENES.

Louis Klepach's Report on How He Found the Famine-Stricken District in India.

Bombay, June 4.—Louis Klepach, of New York, publisher of the Christian Herald, who arrived here May 14 and started at once on a tour of the famine-stricken districts, has returned after traveling through the most severely stricken portions of the Bombay presidency, including Gujarat and Baroda. He makes the following statement regarding his observations: "Everywhere I met the most shocking and revolting scenes. The famine camps have been swept by cholera and smallpox. Fugitives, scattering in all directions and stricken in flight, were found dying in the fields and roadside ditches. The numbers at any relief station were increasing at the rate of 10,000 per day. At Godhara there were in 2,000 months from cholera within four days, and at Bhad 2,000 in the same period. The hospital death rate at Godhara and Bhad was 50 per cent. At Bhad the death rate in the poorhouse was 10 per cent. Every day I saw new patients placed face to face with corpses. In every fourth case there was a corpse."

"The thermometer read 113 in the shade. Millions of flies hovered around the uncleanly dysentery patients. "I visited the smallpox and cholera wards at Viramgam. All the patients were dying, and the deaths were being no cure. Otherwise their condition was fair."

"I can fully verify the reports that villages, towns and districts are becoming a dead. Dogs have been seen

OVER THE ROOF TOPS.

New York Police Chase House Breakers, With Disastrous and Fatal Results.

New York, June 4.—The police at an early hour in the morning chased four house breakers over the roof tops in the 14th street East Side tenement district, with the result that one of the fugitives is dead, one is suffering from concussion of the brain and internal injuries at Harlem hospital, another is under arrest and the fourth made his escape. The men were discovered after they had broken into a vacant store and were attempting to get into a clothing store. The alarm was given, and four policemen chased them up through the tenement hallway and over the roofs.

Three of the men attempted to make a descent to the ground by means of a lofty clothes pole standing close to one of the buildings. At least two of them fell from the third story to the paved roadway below. Alexander Crowe, 21 years old, was killed instantly, and William Dickson was found unconscious. It is thought that the other man fell on top of these two and was not injured. He made his escape at an early hour, and is now 35 years old, was caught on the roof.
